

SURGICAL LOVE

Intro

Verse 1

You feel my fears in the night.
Discern my dreams in the morning.
You open up doors, open up doors,
Every time I open up my heart to You.
You love me too much to promote me,
With all my dreams that destroy me.
So pull me in close, with Your surgical love,
'til every part of me can sing.

Chorus

There is only one plan for me.
It's the one that leads to You.
And if it starts with suffering let it be my joy.
'Cause there is only one lasting peace,
In the end, I know it's You.
The temporary's done, forever has begun in me.

Oh, it's a surgical love. The temporary's done, forever has begun in me

Bridge

You choose me,
To be the answer that the world sees.
So put my soul into surgery, 'cause,
The temporary's done, forever has begun in me.

Rap

Lord I give You permission
To come and make the incision,
To give me a new heart, a new vision,
A new reason for living
Because I'm sick of pretending
I can carry all that weight I was given, and I,
Know there's so much more, so much to endure,
So much to explore, before You open the door

You make sure I'm pure,

Because before promotion, comes devotion,
A heart that's fully dedicated,
not just going through motions,
You put me in the fire just to take out corrosion,
but I know that You're with me,
So I'm willing to go in,
just help me live a life that will truly show them,
That by Your love, our mountains move,
and by Your hand, our pain's subdued,
Everything we do, Lord, we do it for You.
That's why I crucify me,
'Cause You crucified You.
