

DUST ARRANGED

Intro

Verse 1

We're dust arranged to a higher form.
I'm breaking down without Your words to hold me up
And call it "good;" without Your touch, the cells in me
Won't act the way they should.
But I believe, I believe.

Chorus

I've got Your wholeness in my bones now.
I've got my faith erupting in my soul now.
(Whoa-Yeah)
I've got Your wholeness in my bones now.
I've got my faith erupting in my soul now.
(Whoa-Yeah)

Verse 2

The word is out, You're the only one,
Who reaches down and turns this earthly pain around
To something good, I'm coming back to walk with You
And talk the way we should
I believe, I believe.

Chorus

I've got Your wholeness in my bones now
I've got my faith erupting in my soul now
(Whoa-Yeah)
I've got Your wholeness in my bones now
I've got my faith erupting in my soul now
(Whoa-Yeah)

Bridge

Even when my dreams feel far away,
When I'm next to You, I'm invincible.
When I know You're near I can face the pain.
I can shout aloud "I've got no more fear."
Even when my dreams feel far away,

When I'm next to You, I'm invincible.
When I know You're near I can face the pain.
I can shout aloud "I've got no more fear."

Instrumental

Ending

I've got Your wholeness in my bones now
I've got my faith erupting, erupting
