Pulse of Your Heart - Intro, V1, V2, PC, C, Inter, Tag, Breakdown, Rap, Inter, Tag, E

Lifting up my hands trying to touch the stars,
Maybe I'm going too hard, going too far, that's not who You are,
Maybe I don't know enough, or maybe they just know too much,
Maybe got the faith of a child and I'm pushing through the crowd
At Your frignes trying to get a touch,
Because You're still my healer, no matter how the world sees You,
I still claim You as redeemer, my Christ my Risen One,
Looking to the Heaven, blinded by the Son,
Falling to my knees as I come undone,
If You got that living water come and give me some
'Cause I'm still on this mission trying to fight this human condition,
You can call that #sinning, but You say I'm #winning,
Any second I choose to give in, and let Your Son start living
