VERSE 1

                  C#                  D#m9 D#m                  B
The sum of all we see did not arrive from nothing
                  C#                  D#m9 D#m                  B
A story shrouded in our snowflakes and our stars
C#                  D#m9 D#m                  B
Takes too much faith to call it accident
                  C#                  D#m9 D#m                  B
And it begs that we all question who You are

PRECHORUS

                  C#                  D#m9 D#m                  B
But Your hand's stretching out to mine
  C#
You're gifting me Your life
                  D#m9 D#m          B
You're offering a life with meaning here
C#
A life with meaning here

CHORUS

C#                  D#m                  G#m                  B
Let all of Heaven know, You found me, found me
C#                  D#m                  G#m                  B
And all the guilt melts off because my history is history
C#                  D#m                  G#m                  B
You came to steal my sorrow and call me home
                  C#                  D#m                  G#m                  B
And when I meet You there, we'll start a whole new earth
